

JOB OPENING

COMMERCIAL/INDUSTRIAL BUILDING DESIGNER

March 1, 2014

Teck Construction is looking for a reliable and self-motivated individual who is able to: communicate effectively; multi-task and manage concurrently several diverse building projects from conception to completion; handle multiple demands and prioritize workloads; maintain and promote good working relations with clients, superintendents, office staff, consultants, municipal and government personnel; take direction effectively; give direction effectively.

Conceptual and architectural design
Commercial, automotive and industrial buildings
Site development layout
Interior and office design
Detailed working drawings
Outline specification writing
Colour boards
B.C. Building Code
Development and building permit applications and process management
Liaison/negotiation with government agencies
Liaison/coordination with engineering consultants
Client liaison and presentations
CAD drawing including Revit
Civil, structural and tilt-up engineering knowledge
Other duties as required

Skills:

- Good working knowledge of all building code requirements
- Good written & oral communication skills
- Good working knowledge of construction drawings & take-offs
- Excellent interpersonal and dispute resolution skills
- Good organizational skills with the ability to “think outside the box”
- Management skills
- Computer skills
 - email
 - word
 - excel spreadsheets
 - extensive AutoCAD skills
 - Revit Building – experience strongly favoured